SKIPS BEFORE WARRANT IS OUT

Henry Johnson, Colored, Leaves County When he is Bound Over to the Circuit Court

HEARS IT IN SQUIRE'S COURT

When Prosecutor Says he Will Have Warrant Sworn Out, Johnson Makes Tracks Out of Here

GIVES HIMSELF UP.

Henry Johnson, colored, who was wanted by Sheriff Cavitt on the charge of assault and battery with intent to kill, came into court this afternoon and gave himself up. He appeared with his father, Peter Johnson, who went his bond in the sum of $300. Johnson stated that he did not intend to evade arrest and was advised by his attorney to surrender.

Henry Johnson, colored, "put one over" on Sheriff Cavitt and the court officials today when he skipped out while a bench warrant was being issued for his arrest from the circuit court. Johnson was under arrest and out on bond on the charge of assault and battery with intent to kill Arnold Yazel and the case was set for trial this morning before Squire Kratzer.

When the case was called Prosecutor Smith dismissed the case for this reason that it would eventually come to the circuit court and stated that he would file the charge with Judge Megee. While the affidavit and bench warrant were being prepared Johnson left and is now at large.

The case is the outgrowth of the fight last week at the carnival grounds. In a free-for-all fight Yazel was hit on the head and then stabbed once. Johnson was one of those arrested and he was charged with assault and battery with intent to kill. At the time Yazel was unable to appear and Johnson went back to jail to await trial. In the mean time his father, Peter Johnson, went on his bond for three hundred dollars.

The most that Squire Kratzer could have done would have been to bind it a penitentiary offense. In order to save time it was decided to dismiss the charge in the squire's court and bring the case directly to the circuit court and thus to avoid delay. To do this the charge was dismissed and this, it is taken would release Peter Johnson from the bond.

Not much time was lost in drawing the bench warrant and it was soon in the hands of Sheriff Cavitt. While the officers were at work Johnson had also been busy and left the county. Sheriff Cavitt called the Johnson home by phone and was told by Peter Johnson that the boy had left. Johnson is not expected to be gone long and in the meantime the affidavit still stands.

BOARD LETS MORE SCHOOL CONTRACTS

Award for Heating Job for New Building Given to Johnson & Co. of Indianapolis for $7,090.

GROUND STAKED OFF TODAY

The city school board awarded the additional contracts yesterday for the new school building. W. H. Johnson and Co., of Indianapolis, received the heating contract and the Chyne Company, also of Indianapolis, the wiring. The bid of Johnson and Co., was $7,090 and Chyne Company $975. The board has not yet awarded the contracts for the plumbing and the vacuum cleaner.

All the contracts were signed. Stephen Purcell, who was the low bidder for the general construction of the building, entered into an agreement with the board at the meeting yesterday. Mr. Purcell and the architect staked off the ground this morning and the work will be rushed to completion.

STORM DOES LITTLE DAMAGE IN COUNTY

Several Head of Live Stock Are Killed. One Barn Near Falmouth Struck, But Doesn't Burn.

LOWDEN'S SILO BLOWN DOWN

The rain yesterday afternoon was general over Rush county and despite the lightning and wind there was very little damage. The rainfall was very heavy, especially in this city. A number of trees were blown down. At the home of Warder Wyatt, corner of Third and Perkins streets a large tree was blown down and crashed through a large window.

A barn on the Mrs. Millie Rea farm near Falmouth was struck by lightning but did not burn. The lightning struck the roof and on one side all the shingles were torn off. Several reports of live stock standing in the field being struck by lightning were heard. A cow on the Wm. Allen farm, south of the city, was killed. Ed Austin, of near New Salem, also lost a cow. The wind blew down many fruit trees and telephone service was badly crippled for a time last night. A large silo on the Ed Lowden farm in Walker township was blown down.

—Miss Alice Sprague, of Cincinnati, formerly Western Union operator here, spent yesterday here as the guest of Mrs. J. H. Vance and family.

$500 FIRE LOSS DOWN IN TOWN

Blaze is Discovered in Davis & Jones Millinery Store Friday Evening Just After 6 o'clock.

VERY FEW PEOPLE KNEW OF IT

Fire is Extinguished by Chemicals and Much Stock is Saved by Not Using Water.

Fire supposed to have resulted when lightning ran in on the telephone at the Davis & Jones millinery store resulted in $500 damage last evening. That greater damage was not done was due to the timely discovery. The fire was all out very soon after it was found and not many people knew that there was a blaze in the very center of the business district.

The store had been closed for the night when the fire was discovered. People living over the store noticed the smoke and notified the fire department headquarters. Joe Williamson and Sam Finney, Jr., took the fire extinguisher to the store and the flames were put out with the chemicals.

The front door of the store was left locked and if it had not been for the smoke, people passing would hardly have noticed the blaze. The fire alarm was not sounded and the stock was saved from a great deal of damage by not throwing any water. The blaze was confined to a corner of the room near the telephone. The supposition is that the lightning ran in on the wires during the storm that passed over the city yesterday afternoon and that the blaze smoldered and did not break out until after the store had been closed. Others declare that the fire started in a drawer below the telephone.

The fire was discovered about sixteen o'clock. The loss consisted largely of trimmings for hats and it is not believed that the rest of the stock was damaged very much from the smoke. The loss to the stock is fully insured and the damage to the building is very small.

Miss Lelah Davis, one of the proprietors of the store, suffered from a nervous breakdown when informed that the store was on fire, and for a time was in a serious condition, but had completely recovered this morning.

GETS LARGE GREENHOUSE

Locates at Terre Haute Without Solicitation or Bonus.

(By United Press.)

Terre Haute, Ind., June 27.—Without solicitation and without asking for a bonus, the J. W. Davis Co., of Davenport, Ia., has come to Terre Haute and is vigorously planning to build the largest greenhouse in America near here. It was incorporated in Indianapolis during the past week at $325,000. This company bought 58 acres of level land at $550 an acre. There will be 50,000 square feet of glass in the eight houses. It will be a little town in itself, consisting of a heating plant, a power plant, a post office and express office and many cottages for the men. Carload shipments will be made to Chicago, Indianapolis, Columbus and Louisville.

Ohio will this year employ ten thousand men in road building.

WILL BE BIGGEST EVER HELD HERE

Flying Squadron of America at Coliseum Will be Most Pretentious Temperance Meeting

FIRST THREE DAYS OF JULY

Official Statement of Purposes and Aims of Flying Squadron is Made Here Today

The Flying Squadron of America, which will hold a 3 day session at the Coliseum the first three days of July will be the most pretentious temperance meeting ever held here. This organization was formed at the conclusion of the national convention of the Anti-Saloon League in Columbus, O., by a union of all the forces working for state and national prohibition. It happens that a conference of the organization will be held July and while it is taking place, some of the prominent people there will come down here for the temperance meeting. The sessions will be free of charge and each program will be attractive because of the musicians to appear on it.

An official statement of the Flying Squadron of America, which is termed a movement big enough for big men and big women, was made here today as follows:

The action taken by the many national religious and reform bodies during the year 1913, culminating in the great convention held in Columbus, Ohio, in November, and Washington D. C., in December, demonstrates conclusively that the time is ripe for a united and nation-wide campaign for national prohibition.

The Presbyterian General Assembly in session at Atlanta, Georgia, declared unanimously for national prohibition.

The Congregational churches of America in their National Council at Kansas City, Missouri, by a vote of 387 to 14, declared for national prohibition.

The Christian church at its late International convention at Toronto, Canada, declared for state and nationwide suppression of the liquor traffic.

The International Christian Endeavor convention in Los Angeles, California, declared unanimously for national prohibition.

Three thousand delegates to the Laymen's Conference of the methods Episcopal church in Indianapolis, Indiana, with enthusiasm unanimously declared for national prohibition.

The Temperance Commission of the Federal council of churches of America, in session at Washington D. C., declared for national prohibition.

The Anti-Saloon league in its national convention in Columbus, Ohio, without a single dissenting vote, declared for national prohibition.

The great gathering under the call of The Council of One Hundred, with ninety-seven national reform, educational religious and temperance organizations represented, declared for national prohibition.

The Prohibition party has for forty years declared for national prohibition, and for six years the Good Templars have had national prohibition for their slogan.

From all the regiments of the great temperance Army there comes a unanimous demand for the national abolition of the legalized liquor traffic of the United States.

Impelled by the above facts and our desire to assist in crystallizing this unanimous sentiment into concrete action, we have organized The Flying Squadron of America.

CARNIVAL DATES ARE SET

Catholic Men Plan For Annual Event in July.

The eighth annual carnival will be held this year at the Catholic park, corner of fifth and Perkins street on July 21, 22, 23 and 24. The carnival will be the largest and most pretentious ever held in the city. The usual attractions such as the country store, Bowling alley, merry-go-round, cane rack, lunch and refreshment stands will be found on the ground. One of the features of the carnival will be the home-talent sketches and minstrels given by the young people of the city. An entire change of program will be made each evening. The carnival will be given by the Catholic men of this city.

MRS. S. C. CONNER IS DEAD IN DES MOINES

Rushville Woman Who Moved West Last December Expires of Paralysis Today, Telegram Says.

BODY MAY ARRIVE TOMORROW

Mrs. S. C. Conner, a resident of this city until last December when she and Mr. Conner went to Des Moines, Iowa, to live, died there this morning of paralysis, according to a telegram received here by relatives today. The body will probably arrive here some time tomorrow and funeral services will be Monday. She suffered a stroke of paralysis before leaving here.

Mrs. Conner was the daughter of General Pleasant A. Hackleman and came from a distinguished family in Rush county. General Hackleman was the only general from Indiana who was killed in the civil war. Mrs. Conner was fifty-eight years old. She was born and reared in this county and lived here all her life until she moved to Des Moines.

She is survived by her husband and one daughter, Mrs. Nellie Hewitt of Des Moines, and one sister, Mrs. Ira Ayres of this city. One other child was born to Mr. and Mrs. Conner, Pleasant, who died in 1906. She was a member of St. Paul's M. E. church.

TO CONTINUE TO USE SAME METERS

City Council Decided to Keep up Contract Which Was Made by the Black Administration

WATER QUARTER ENDS JULY 1

The special meeting of the city council last night was nothing more than a caucus and a talk-fest, the subject being the purchase of water meters. No official action was taken but it is understood that the council will continue the contract of the Black administration and use the same meter as called for in this contract.

Water rentals by meter are due July 1, this being the end of the quarter. The impression has gone out that the city will collect under the proposed new scale of rates but this is impossible as the public service commission has never passed on the new rates and the old rates will be in effect until this is done.

IN KEEPING WITH LONGLEY'S WISH

Announced Intention of Police to Enforce Fireworks Ordinance as State Fire Marshal Desires.

HOPES TO CUT DOWN FIRE LOSS

He Further Urges Fire Department to Take Extra Precaution to Prevent Spread of Fire.

The announced intention recently of the Rushville police department to enforce the ordinance concerning the firing of fireworks before the Fourth of July is in line with the request of the state fire marshal who is especially desirous of cutting down the loss from the fire during Fourth celebrations in Indiana this year.

It is very noticeable that the firing of cap pistols and firecrackers has practically ceased since the police made public the fact that they intended to see the ordinance was obeyed. The ordinance provides no fireworks shall be exploded before midnight of July 3 or after midnight of July 4.

The Indiana state fire marshal is anxious for every local fire department in Indiana to take unusual precautions during the Fourth of July season to prevent the spread of fire.

"Last year we noticed every Indiana fire department to be particularly watchful on the Fourth," says the fire marshal. "More than fifty fires were reported, resulting in a loss of $8,500. The large number of losses reported is particularly significant, for any one of these fifty fire might have resulted in serious loss to property and life, had not local departments been unusually active in preventing the spread of the fire."

The ordinance to prevent the retailing of fire works which Fire Marshal Longley recommended to every Indiana city last week, does not prevent the use of fire works for displays, says the fire marshal. It does limit their sale, however, and make it necessary for the permission of the mayor or fire chief to be obtained before fire works may be discharged.

"By limiting the use of fire works in this way," says the state fire marshal, "local fire prevention officials may make any requirements for public safety that the conditions seem to require."

Theresa Sweetman has accepted the position of visiting nurse for the Metropolitan Insurance company here.

Profits Better Than Ever

A large safety razor concern which has been advertising in the newspapers finds that the first quarter of 1914 shows larger sales and better profits than ever.

Considering the fact that this period was not one of booming business the showing is the more remarkable.

Long experience has taught the owners of this razor that they can get better results at less cost in the newspaper than through any other medium.

Dealers are always glad to push these articles because the advertising in the papers creates a definite demand.

NO RESPECT FOR DIGNITY SHOWN

Everyone Looks Alike in Vera Cruz, Even General Funston Being Bothered by Newsboys

TOOK HEALTHY KICK AT ONE

Postoffice Department Refused to be Courteous to Army Men and is Upheld

BY WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Vera Cruz, June 18. (By mail to New York)—How to keep your dignity. That seems to be the big problem in Vera Cruz these days. Some folks succeed and some don't. It's hard to hang onto your money, because of the Klondike prices; it's difficult to keep cool; it's even hard to keep clean. But how to keep your dignity; there's the rub.

It's a problem that seems to bother the army and navy officials more than it does common everyday folks. Only the other day General Funston's dignity almost got away from him. He was trying to eat a meal under the sidewalk arcade surrounding the plaza, chatting meanwhile with one of his officers. The newsboys, bootblacks, and souvenir sellers pestered him like flies, in Mexican style and, after being interrupted a score of times, the general suddenly rose, and sent after the flying Mexican urchins, a kick that would have disabled a horse, had it struck home. Everybody under the arcade agreed he was right and was sorry he had missed.

Then there was the case of Captain Stickney, navyman, who was made chief of the port of Vera Cruz. Two busy, hustling chaps named Robinson and Poole from the post-office department had been hustled across the gulf to Vera Cruz to get the postoffice here into order. The first day, the admiral of the fleet announced to the postoffice that one of his ships would be sailing soon for America; it would carry mail.

"Advise postoffice department when ship leaves," was the message which Poole sent to Captain Stickney of the navy.

Wow! That little message raised hob with Stickney. It seemed to hit him right square in his dignity. He wrote a letter back to the busy post-office men.

IN SUCH PAIN WOMAN CRIED

Suffered Everything Until Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Florence, So. Dakota.—"I used to be very sick every month with bearing down pains and backache, and had headache a good deal of the time and very little appetite. The pains were so bad that I used to sit right down on the floor and cry, because it hurt me so and I could not do any work at those times. An old woman advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I got a bottle. I felt better the next month so I took three more bottles of it and got well so I could work all the time. I hope every woman who suffers like I did will try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound." — Mrs. P. W. LANSING, Route No. 1, Florence, South Dakota.

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

"When you address me," he said in effect, "kindly use courteous terms and always place your matter in the form of a request, not an order." Then he signed his name and put all his titles after it.

The postoffice took the matter up with the admiral himself. "The navy is one branch of the government," they pointed out, "and the postoffice is another branch. We've got out orders in the postoffice department not to use titles and a lot of courteous words, but to make all our letters and telegrams as short and concise as possible. That's what we did to Stickney."

"You're right," ruled the admiral. And now the messages that Captain Stickney gets from the postoffice department are shorter than ever with a lot of business in them, but not much balm for wounded dignity.

And there's a lieutenant who had charge of the stub train used to run out, twice a day, to the gap in the railroad to pick up American refugees from Mexico City. These refugees were always footsore and tired and sick at heart, having left nearly all their possessions behind them in Mexico, and their first glimpse of the American flag, on the train at the gap, always thrilled them.

Some of them were inclined, in the joy of their spirits, to give three cheers for the flag and slap every soldier and officer on the back and call them "Good boys." It was only natural, but the Lieutenant couldn't understand it that way. Pretty soon reports began to reach General Funston, from refugees, that after passing through the hands of scores of Mexican officials on the way from Mexico City, the first dictatorial and unpleasant officer they met, was the lieutenant in charge of the stub train. The Lieutenant kept his dignity, all right, but, by orders of General Funston, who acts like lightning in such cases, he lost his job on the train. There's a soldier chap on the train now who helps the arriving refugees to cheer for the Red, White and Blue, if they want to, and who only smiles, happily, if an enthusiastic American slaps him between the shoulders and says "You fellows are all right."

Even Rear Admiral Sir Craddock, who had charge of the two English ships in the harbor, and who outranks Badger, Fletcher, Mayo and Winslow, has had his troubles, though he took them gamely and with a smile. He walked in "cits" clothes to an American marine outpost on the beach the other day and was stopped by a sentry, who said: "What's your name?" "Craddock," answered the stranger.

"Well, this the deadline," said the sentry not knowing he was speaking to a British admiral, "you can't go any further.

"I don't want to go any further, then," said the admiral, and he turned, smiling and strode away.

THAT SUNDAY RUSH

A Talk to Mrs. Housewife of Rushville.

When that visitor is here from out-of-town you hurry home from church on Sunday morning to make sure the big dinner is going to be just right. You "pitch in" yourself and when everything is ready you're too tired and hot to enjoy the meal. When the meal is over there comes the cleaning up before that afternoon drive and for the rest of the day you feel unfit for your role of entertaining hostess.

There's only one way to overcome that worry and hurry, to prevent "that tired feeling" before your day of rest is half through. Your husband will agree on that point when you suggest taking Mr. and Mrs. Out-of-Town to a Sunday dinner at the

THREE EVENTS WON BY BRITISH

American Athletes Will Have to Grab Four Remaining Contests to Break Even.

RITCHIE TO FIGHT WELCH

National League Trying to Shorten Time of Playing Ball Games—Many Knock Feds.

(Written for United Press.)
(BY HAL SHERIDAN.)

New York, June 27.—To crow over the British Lion this year, the erstwhile fearsome Eagle will have to take the next four international set-tos in a row. Out of seven England-American clashes so far in the year 1914, those bally Britishers have grabbed off the three that have occurred. Last April J. Bull sprung his first jolt when the Oxford University varsity relay team showed its heels to America's best at Philadelphia. Wallop No. 2 came when British amateur golfers at Sandwich, Eng., beat the cream of the United States golfers. It is almost too recent to go into the details of how the four British poloists stole the big Four's last year's stuff and from the jump fought the American polo team to a standstill, thereby grabbing the coveted Westchester Cup.

The four remaining international battles are the Willie Ritchie-Fredie Welsh lightweight scrap at London; the Davis Cup Tennis matches here this summer; the open golf championships in England to be played shortly, and the yacht for the America's Cup in September. Experts believe that the Americans have a fair chance to crow after the Ritchie-Welsh fight. They believe the Americans should take the British into camp in the tennis matches and it is believed the chances favor a United States victory when Shamrock LV meets the American cup defender. As to the open golf championship, golfing experts claim to see little chance unless young Francis Ouimet is right.

Even if things work out this way and the open golf championship title is lost it will give England the edge and the "standing of the teams" will read as follows: England, Won 4, Lost 3; P. C., 571; America Won 3; Lost 4; P. C., 429. If Ritchie beats Welsh he will be slightly above Ouimet's class, should the latter be defeated at golf. Ouimet has a French Amateur championship title to tote around.

President Tener of the National League has just issued an order that should bring glee and balm to the hearts of the housewives as well as make a big hit with the fans. Tener is determined to make the games shorter. He has ordered that hereafter outfielders must stop using an extra ball for practice between innings. He could make a still bigger hit with everyone concerned if he started the game earlier all over the circuit.

Which affords at tip to the Federal League magnates. About as popular a move as the Gilmorites could make would be to start the games at somewhere near the same time—and an earlier time at that—all over the Federal circuit.

It may be—and then again it may not be—that the Federal League is dead, embalmed, buried with ceremonies and returned to ashes. It's true that it will take another season to tell whether the public wants the Federal League, but from the space some of the eastern sporting writers are taking to write the long drawn out obituary, it looks like they are trying hard to convince themselves of something they don't believe.

Another funny thing about the boys who have their hammers out for the Federals to the extent of some two columns daily, is the way they unmercifully pan any player who leaps agilely from Organized Ball to the so-called Outlaws. If you don't believe it, just take the tip, and from this time henceforth note how it goes. Before a player jumped he was called a wonder or a comer. The minute he jumped notice was immediately given regarding said player's bunions, or his weak eyes, or the way he wore his hat on one side, or his nasty disposition. It's a safe bet that if Ty Cobb, Walter Johnson, Frank Baker, Eddie Collins and Connie Mack himself all jumped to the Feds, there'd be any number of folks who would get out the trusty hammer. This isn't a brief for the Federal League. It is simply a reminder that if any more "fast legs" that the Feds are said to be on every day in the week, materialize, that organization will shape up as a centipede.

Besides being famed for its climate and its high jumpers, California generally can be depended on to furnish at least one tennis marvel a year. The latest California wizard of the court who has risen up to make Americans feel that the Davis Cup is safe on this side of the Atlantic is R. Lindley Murray, whose work at the West Side courts here in the play for the Metropolitan championship, amazed the spectators.

Murray, a 17-year-old youth smashed through a victory over G. A. L. Dionne, captain of the West Side team, and a veteran of high calibre, bodes ill for the Britishers.

Constitutionalist Delegates Will Not Meet Huerta Envoys to Discuss Mexico's Troubles.

EXAMPLE OF WILSON'S HOPE

(By United Press.)

Washington, June 27.—The Constitutionalist delegates in the United States have no immediate intention of taking part in the proposed informal conference with the Huerta delegates for settlement of Mexico's problems. This was indicated in a statement made today by Jose Vasconcelles who said the Carranza representative probably would remain in Washington for several weeks.

The administration is so convinced that the factions will settle on peace terms that General Wolfe has been ordered to assume his duties as commander of the division of the east with headquarters at Governor's Island. He had been held in reserve to command any aggressive operation in Mexico.

STUDENTS' MUSICALS.

The piano students of Miss Jessie Kitchen, assisted by the Misses Norma Smith and Elizabeth Tevis, gave an afternoon musicale yesterday at Miss Kitchen's home in West Third street. In spite of the storm, a large number of the invited guests were present. Announcement was made of the number of weeks for which some of the young children had been studying, and the result of their work was very surprising. Children of seven and eight years of age who had studied from nine to fifteen weeks transposed studies into a number of keys and played pieces from memory. The whole program, with the exception of the ensemble work and one solo, was given from memory. The advanced pupils gave their pieces very intelligent interpretations and displayed technical ability which must have been very gratifying to their parents and friends.

Troubles Growing

The troubles of the Democratic machine leaders of Indiana multiply. Some "forward looking" individual has discovered that the last day for the payment of the fall installment of taxes in Indiana falls on the day before the November election. This caused a shudder to run up and down the spinal cords of the Democratic state candidates and their most active supporters. One Democratic politician, who was greatly exercised over this discovery which is expected to have a highly important bearing on the voting in Indiana, offered the suggestion that an effort be made to induce Governor Ralston to call the legislature in special session for the purpose of postponing the taxpaying limit until after election. "Great Scott!" exclaimed this Democrat. "Wont the taxpayers of Indiana who are compelled to pay a good stiff advance in their taxes because of the last Democratic legislature raising the state tax levy be in a great frame of mind to go to the polls on the following day and vote the Democratic ticket? I for one wish that the taxpaying limit fell on any other day in the year than on the day before the election."

The members of the Republican state committee only smiled when their attention was called to this fact. The Republican campaign speakers intend to make life miserable for the Democratic machine leaders with their exposure of the reckless extravagance of the Democratic management of the state's financial affairs. After the taxpayers of the state have heard something of the wonderful ease with which the Democratic machine has created needless, expensive jobs for the faithful and have heard something of the ease with which the Democrats have increased at a startling rate the ordinary running expenses of the state government they will be face to face, on the day before election, with concrete proof of the Republican contention that Indiana's fiscal affairs have been woefully and extravagantly mismanaged by the Democratic machine administration.

What Our Neighbors Are Talking About

A SQUARE DEAL.

(Shelbville Republican.)

State Chairman Ed C. Toner in a speech over at Indianapolis before the Seventh District Progressive convention made the statement that the congressional nomination was handed to P. J. Lynch in the Sixth district in the "same old way," that the delegates did not want him, etc. The Indianapolis Star used that story until it was told from every county in the district what a misrepresentation of facts it was—but it now use them, using Toner as a mouthpiece. If any party leader or party paper thinks it can get ahead by misrepresenting and mistating facts let the thing be kept up. You cannot fool the people. You all know the old Lincoln story. Honesty is absolutely the best policy and it pays in politics just as elsewhere. The Star and Toner may keep on telling the fabrications against Lynch until they actually believe them, but nobody else will. No man ever received a nomination more fairly, squarely or honestly than P. J. Lynch. He was the choice of the delegates because of his ability as a business man, as a speaker, a good mixer, as an energetic and tireless worker and all around equipment for the position of a candidate and Congressman. He can do things and get things done. No man dictated or attempted to dictate his nomination. He was the choice of a majority of the delegates in every county of the district except Wayne—which was Judge Comstock's county. Lynch was the logical candidate. It was easily apparent to all of the delegates and he was nominated by them.

EFFORT TO GET THE 'HIGHER UPS'

Indictments Against Evansville

Brewers in Tennessee Said to Hit at Heads of Business.

DOESN'T SEEM TO WORRY THEM

Going Ahead With Plans for German

Day Parade and Will Take

Active Part

(By United Press.)

Evansville, Ind., June 27.—Beer, breweries and saloons have filled the local papers for overflowing during the past two weeks. Milwaukee has been outdistanced, and Terre Haute is no more. In brief, here are some of the new items now filling the minds of Evansville people:

Indictments were returned in Memphis, Tenn., against six of the prominent local brewers, and Governor Ralston was asked to honor requisition papers. These brewers were charged with violating the "four-mile" law and were accused of hiding behind their employees while they sought to obtain immunity by working in Memphis "by long distance" from another state. This is said to be the first effort to get the "higher ups" who have been profiting from alleged law violations in the dry state while they ran no risk themselves.

Meanwhile, Evansville's brewers are actively assisting in arrangements for the German Day parade. The Evansville Brewery will have a representation of Saint Gambrinus, the patron saint of beer and the float will give the old German legend. Cook's brewery is planning a Rathskeller scene.

Henry Wimberg, president of the Evansville Brewery and one of those indicted in Memphis, disposed of his saloon buildings here to the Terre Haute Brewing Co. Some people here profess to see in this a move to establish the Crawford Fairbanks influence here in order that the Terre Haute millionaire brewer politician may boost the candidacy of Mayor Boose for Governor. Wimberg said the deal was strictly business and had no political tinge. Wimberg owned 12 saloon buildings outright and controlled a number of leases, it is said.

NEW POSTAL CARDS ARE BEING ISSUED

Engraving of Head of William McKinley, Martyred President,

Displaced by Jefferson.

NEW RULES FOR ENVELOPES

A new series of postal card, designed especially for use of commercial houses, that will replace the old No. 4 card, now in use, has been issued by the Postoffice Department and will be introduced at the Rushville postoffice when the next order is made. The cards are of cream tint, printed in green ink. Instead of bearing the engraving of the head of William McKinley they will bear that of Thomas Jefferson. Owing to the fact that Postmaster Hunt had made an order for a lot of the old style cards before he knew the new ones had been issued, it may be some time before the new styles are seen in Rushville.

Specifications for forms and sizes of "window" envelopes, issued by the Postoffice Department, have been received here, to become effective July 1. Under the new order colored "window" envelopes will not be allowed. On white ones the top of the opening must be one and three eighths inches from the top of the envelope to allow room for cancelling and a space of three-eighths of an inch must be left below the "window" for writing space in case letters are misdirected.

40,000 MEN TO BE IN PARADE

Predicted This Many Would Be Big Demonstration in Connection with Sunday School Convention

KEYNOTE PHRASE PROMINENT

Historical Pageant Will be Given Tonight in Which Twenty-Seven Schools Will Take Part

(By United Press.)

Chicago, June 27.—Waving pennants and banners the keynote phrase of the convention, "Jesus Shall Reign," thousands of men gathered in Michigan avenue for the parade late this afternoon that was to be the spectacular feature of the fourteenth International Sunday School convention, holding a week's sessions here. Between 40,000 and 50,000 men, it was predicted, would be in line when the parade moved.

An escort of mounted police was to lead the way, and behind them came 2,000 marching delegates given the place of honor, several thousand marchers from Illinois, northern Indiana and Southern Wisconsin Sunday Schools and big delegations from nearly every Sunday School in Cook county. Each of the larger delegations was provided with a band.

The parade was planned as a gigantic demonstration to impress upon the men of Chicago the fact that more than 3,000,000 men are attending Sunday School in North America. The convention leaders declared it would be the greatest parade in the history of their organization. Brief conferences of convention groups were held this forenoon but activities were suspended this afternoon while the Sunday School delegates sought places in the crowds that massed along the line of march.

In Medinah temple, where the main sessions of the convention are being held, a historical pageant will be given tonight, twenty-seven Sunday Schools from Cook county taking part. A number of denominational rallies will be held at the same time in other parts of the city. National prohibition of the liquor traffic will be considered at the Sunday afternoon session in Medinah temple. Rev. Pudley E. Baker, national superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, and Richmond P. Hobson, who introduced the Prohibition amendment in Congress, will be the speakers.

Mass meetings for boys and girls for instruction in temperance and purity were held in the First Congregational and Third Presbyterian churches. Sunday night services at Medinah Temple will be addressed by Bishop William F. McDowell of the Methodist church.

MINISTREL EVEN GREATER SUCCESS

Second Performance is Attended by Large Crowd and Stunts Are Received With More Enthusiasm.

LITTLE GRAHAM PUGH SINGS

The cararet minstrel was repeated last night at the Coliseum by the Psi Iota Xi sorority and the Kappa Alpha Phi fraternity before a crowd estimated at four or five hundred people. The minstrel, if there was any difference between the two performances, was better last night and received equally as great applause, if not more. Scores of people went to both performances.

An added feature last night was little Graham Pugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Pugh. He appeared as a black-face, with overalls and a big straw hat. He sang a song which set the audience in an uproar, and then he sang the chorus of "Back, Back, Back to Indiana" with Miss Wanda Wyatt.

Merle Maupin, who had gone through rehearsals with the caste as pianist and who, it was stated by the management of the minstrel, asked for playing what they thought was an exorbitant price at six o'clock, two hours before the performance began, declares that he did not think the price exorbitant because it was approximately what he received for playing at "The Captain of Plymouth."

KILLED BY A MOSQUITO

Exactly — there are hundreds of deaths each year that can be directly or indirectly traced to the simple little bites of mosquitoes. These little pests carry and spread disease. It's not so much the sting of their bite as the dread of infection. Therefore you should take extra precaution to treat mosquito bites as being more than mere bites.

Penslar Skeeter Dig

not only allays the itch and sting, but sterilizes the part affected because of its antiseptic and healing properties. Used as a protection from the effect of mosquito bites, this lotion becomes doubly valuable. Put a bottle of it in your grip. --

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular free.

EVEN LOSES HER WASH TUB

(By United Press.) Evansville, Ind., June 27.—After a hard struggle, Mrs. Susan Smith, 68, extends her withered arms to society for help.

Grandma has lost her home, and her daughter. Her son, Curtis Smith, just released from prison where he was sent to pay for a crime committed by another, has no work.

When she returned from her daughter's funeral the other day, she found that her shanty had blown down in a storm. A week before that her daughter, a cripple, had gone into the storm to hold up the shanty against the wind and contracted the cold from which she died.

Mrs. Curtis Smith is ill. Curtis' children are crying for food. Curtis worked for the state while he was in Jeffersonville reformatory for another man's crime but the state did not pay him for that. And until the confession of John Alvis cleared Smith and opened the prison door for him, it was old Grandma Smith who looked after her blind husband and did seven washings a week for the benefit of Curtis' family. But now Grandma Smith has no tub in which to do washings, and she asks for help.

RUSHVILLE BOY LOSES AT RICHMOND

Charles Sherman Defeated For National Master of Ceremonies at Phi Delta Kappa Convention.

MANY MEMBERS HERE ATTEND

Charles Sherman of this city was defeated for national master of ceremonies at the closing business session of the annual national convention of the Phi Delta Kappa fraternity at Richmond yesterday. He lost to Jack Davison of Winchester. He was a candidate for the same office last year. Several members of the Rushville chapter were in attendance all during the convention and others attended the dances Wednesday night and last night, and the banquet Thursday night.

A national Phi Delta Kappa fraternity home within five years is the goal every chapter in the organization will strive for. This plan was first suggested by Zack Sanderson of the Marion chapter. A committee, consisting of Zack Sanderson, Earl Rowe, Richmond; Malcolm Skinner, Portland; Wayne Monahan, Fort Wayne, and Dr. Clevenger, mayor of Garrett, made a report recommending a per capita tax of 25 cents annually to be paid by the chapters. In five years this will provide an ample fund. A big farm with natural park scenery on a lake shore will be purchased and a headquarters building and dance hall erected. The remainder of the ground will be plotted to permit chapters to erect their own summer cottages.
